ONE IN KENTUCKY KILLS TEN

Only One Miner Removed from Mine Alive—Two Brought from Peoria, Illinois Shaft Unconscious.

Drakesboro, Ky., Feb. 2.—Ten men are known to be dead and seventeen others are missing, presumed to be penned up in entries by falls of slate, as a result of a gas explosion in the Browder mine, one and one-half miles from Drakesboro, at noon yesterday.
At 8 o'clock tonight eight of the bodies had been recovered, all of them horribly mutilated, and some of them past identification. Because of the accumulation of gases in the entry where the explosion occurred,

170 feet beneath the ground and 700 feet back from the mine shaft, it was impossible to begin active rescue work until six hours after the disaster occurred.

The concussion tossed the bodies distances of many feet. What caused the ignition of the gases has not yet been ascertained. The remaining missing men were in entries but a few feet distant from the workings where there was the greatest known loss of life, and the searching parties have been unable to locate these entries. It is believed all the men entombled there are dead.

The pit-mouth presents a pitiful scene tonight, with the shrieking wives and children of the dead and missing miners crowding about, awaiting reports from the rescuers.

Four of the dead have been inden-

PEORIA MINE BURNING

Origin of Fire Thought to Be Incendiary.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 2.—While fire was raging in the shaft and upper works a rescue party entered the escape shaft of Sholl mine, at South Bartonville, a mile from the main shaft, and brought two miners, nearly dead from suffocation, to the surface. Only two men were in the mine at the time. The fire is believed to have had an incendiary origin and started in the tipples at 5:30 p. m. All the upper works and wooden construction of the main shaft was burned.

The blaze was extinguished by volunteers two hours later. The mine is owned by Sholl Bros. in Peoria.

ONLY ONE SURVIVES.

Becomes More Apparent.

Primero, Colo., Feb. 2.—When darkness fell tonight on Primero, where yesterday the lives of seventy-nine miners were snuffed out by an explosion in the main slope of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company's mines, the bodies of forty victims lay in a temporary morgue installed in the machine shop.

A large force of men was still engaged in restoring ventilation throughout the mine and hundreds of Primero's citizens lingered about the mouth of the shaft waiting for the recovery of the bodies. Officials of the company on the ground not needed to supervise the mine work turned their efforts to the relief

W. H. MURRAY ANNOUNCES

HIS CANDIDACY FOR GOV.
ERNOR.

EXPECTS TO BE FOUGHT

vate Character Beyond His
His History.

Tishomingo, Okla., Feb. 1.—The Hon. Wm. H. Murray, president of the constitutional convention and speaker of the first house of representatives, has today finally authorized his announcement for the democratic nomination for governor, in a signed statement. It is definitely understood that his headquarters will be opened and campaign conducted from Tishomingo with additional headquarters in old Oklahoma Territory, probably either in Lawton or Enid. The full text of his statement is as follows:

"To the Citizens of Oklahoma:— Herein confiding in you my past history—my stumbling boyhood, my sagging youth, and imperfect manhood—in an effort to rise from orphanage, poverty and ignorance, I hereby announce my candidacy for the democratic nomination for governor in the primaries to be held on the 2nd day of next August, subject to the democratic vote in said primary.

"Believing that a public officer or
a man seeking public position has no private character, beyond that which he bears to his family, I here state for the benefit of all interested that I have resided all my life in Texas and in the Chickasaw Nation, having been born November 21st, 1869, near Collinsville, Grayson county, Texas; mother died when two years of age and upon remarriage of my father was removed by him to Montague county, Texas, in the vicinity of Montague town until September 18th, 1881, when I ran away from home in company with two brothers, going to Wise county, picking cotton four miles west of Decatur.
Removed to Keeter and Garvin in the southern part of that county;
engaged for a few months in picking cotton and chopping cord wood, subsequently attending school; worked upon a farm for E. W. Loper, whose sons live at Tishomingo, at $7.50 per month for one crop season; worked on a brick yard in Greasy Bend west of Aurora; ran cattle on the Trinity river for one James Craig. Went to
College Hill Institute, subsequently taught school at Goshen and Millsap in said county. Removed to Buffalo, Leon county; thence to Cade, Navarro county, where I taught school;
also for some months in Limestone county. Lived a few months in Farm-
Grange, Ledbetter and Round Top, Fayette county. Returned to school at College Hill Institute for one year, later was associate editor of a state weekly paper, the Farmers World,
Daily and Weekly News at Corsicana, admitted to the bar to practice law,
and after a short while removed to Fort Worth and formed a partnership with Less L. Hudson, with offices in the Powell building; remaining there a year and half; removed to Tish-omingo, where I have since lived.

cupation, I had picked cotton, chopped cord wood, worked on brick yards and by the month on the farm, punched cattle, farmed on rented land, attended school, acted as book agent, and as a drummer on the road, edited newspapers, served as newspaper solicitor, newspaper reporter for the Fort Worth Daily Gazette, as school teacher, lawyer and proprietary farmer.

Within Oklahoma now live persons who knew me at these various places, among them Dr. J. H. Barp, Oklahoma City; Dr. Harris, Konawa; C.

W. Goree, Henryetta; G. W. Lewis,
Marlow; Wm. Bobo, Norman; Dr.
Standifer, Elk City; Henry C. Gill-land and Sam Gilliland and his brothers of Jackson county; Millard Hew-litt, the Killough boys and Loftus boys of Washita county; B. W.
Taylor, Bertrand, Cimarron county; N. E. Nance, a banker, Guymon, Oklahoma; Jess Hill, Tulsa; Bill
Kendall and the other Kendall boys of Roger Mills county, including many others whose names are too numerous to mention.

In this recital I purposely omit any successes or failures I may have made, and give these places of residence and the occupations I have followed that any citizen of Oklahoma may investigate my past conduct as a boy, youth and man. I have never been a grafter or broken the law.
My only request is that whatever charges may be made against me should be made in the open, and I call upon the people now to make the opposition fight fair. Do not permit gum-shoe falsehoods as has been practiced for the past few months. Make them make their charges in the open and in time for me to answer and the people to investigate. Whatever charges I have to make against any person will be made open and above board and a sufficient length of time before August to give time for reply.

I have no financial interest other than farm lands and farm property.

I own no newspaper or stock in any newspaper, periodical or journal; nor
paper plant for money loaned, nor do I expect to buy any newspaper either outright or editorial support, nor do I intend to hire any person to work for my nomination.

The daily press have not generally treated me fairly, particularly the metropolitan press. They have given me a character foreign to my convictions, impulses or motives. Not a single member of this latter class in the state has been as fair to me
Morning News of Dallas, Texas.

In due time I shall in completed speech discuss the questions which I conceive to be important and which will likely arise in the campaign, giving my position and the reasons
in the state with a view of giving those reasons to the people.

My record upon all state questions is more fully known than any other candidate's, and certainly as fully
member of the constitutional conven-
every question except during my ab-
and as member of the first legislature, though speaker, was present every roll call and voted upon every question coming before that body.
This record will be found in the printed journals of those two bodies.
The public may not have agreed with me in all my public career—and it would have been strange if they did—but no man can ever have charged me with having shifted or shirked a single responsibility.

In all my public career I have tried to merit and obtain the confidence and approval of the people, but above all the approval of one man whose confidence and conscientious approval, obtained, satisfied me; and that man's name is Bill Murray. I have had but little controversy with the great middle class, particularly that portion of them known as the farmer and skilled labor, but have had some difference on detail with certain self-styled labor leaders and upon principle with representatives of capital, although I have tried to be and am now the friend of all legitimate capital and honest labor, but have
or toll of the fools or tools of either.

Do I expect to be fought? Yes;
with all of the abuse and slander that can be printed by a corporate press, backed by all of the power that money can furnish, hounded by a corrupt and debased gang of politicians with all of their cunning kanvery and insidious villainy. In many respects it will be such a campaign as characterized the race of the immortal Jim Hogg. Just as he won in Texas shall I also win in Oklahoma, by the support generally
of the great middle class, which army's right flank will be composed of the boys who vote, who feed the world; who clothe the world, who have won all battles of the world, and

Quillan, brother of T. R. McQuillan and Mrs. J. I. Hensen, died at his home in Wichita during the week.
Mr. McQuillan was a long and constant sufferer, being an invalid for about fifteen years. He was a man of attractive appearance and one pleasing to know. At one time he was president of the Men's Commercial
remains were interred at Wichita.

Spearmore, Okla., Feb. 2.—Alpha Horner, a boy who lived east of here on Otter Creek, was drowned in that stream. He had set some traps along the creek and while visiting
fell head foremost into the water, where he was found later.

Arnett, Ok., Feb. 2.—The death is announced of John Thompson, aged 75, of Kenebec. He leaves an aged companion and several children.

PACKERY FOR SHAWNEE.

Contract Is Signed by Which City Secures Plant for $225,000.

Shawnee, Ok., Feb. 2.—M. B.
Wells and associates of Salem, Ill., representing the Big Four Packing company, tonight signed a contract with the Shawnee Chamber of Commerce to construct a packing house here with a capacity of 2,400 cattle and 4,800 hogs daily, and also union stock yards. The city gives a bonus of $225,000.

To the People of Pontotoc County:
As the time is drawing near when you will select a County Judge to serve you during the next term, I wish to again thank you for the con-
honor of having one of your positions of trust placed in my hands during the first term.

This office is perhaps the closest one to the people and touches more interests and the welfare of more individuals than any other, and I rejoice with you to know that you will have several worthy and competent
next County Judge.

In that I have been asked whether or not I will be a candidate to succeed myself, I have adopted this method of informing you that I will
not. Very Respectfully,

Joel Terrell.

Uncle Joe Cannon says he has own fault, you didn't have to do it, Uncle.

Cannon Does Not Expect to Be De-

(By Tav.)

Washington, Feb. 2.—The truth is that "Uncle Joe" does not expect to succeed himself as speaker. But he does not expect to be deposed or defeated by republicans. Speaker Cannon has seen the handwriting on the wall, and is satisfied that the next House of Representatives will have a democratic majority. Speaker Cannon's own word is the authority for this statement. Not long ago, while riding on a Pullman, the speaker was overheard by the wife of a prominent republican insurgent who was sitting opposite him, to express the opinion that regardless of whether the new tariff law was really a good law or a bad law, the people had decreed that it was a bad law, and that a result of this adverse public sentiment the republicans must temporarily lose control of the lower house.

This statement of the speaker's if you will turn it over a few times and examine closely, is the milk in the "Uncle Joe" speakership cocoon.
It explains everything.

MORE INQUIRIES OF HIGH PRICES

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED IN HOUSE ORDERS INQUIRY.

Trust.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The cost of living in the United States is to be thoroughly inquired into by the House of Representatives through its most powerful committee—the Ways and Means. Late today Representative
Payne, chairman of that committee
and majority leader, introduced his resolution providing for an investigation along the broadest lines.

Mr. Payne conferred with Representative Champ Clark, minority leader, who has been designated with him by the committee to draft the instrument authorizing the investigation.
The committee is to inquire into any alleged increase in the cost of necessaries of life, some of which such as clothing, fuel, furniture, meats and foodstuffs, are enumerated.
Wholesale and retail prices and rates
question of whether the tariff is responsible for the alleged high cost of living is covered in a general provision "as to whether prices are affected, increased or otherwise by any laws of the United States."

The hearings of the committee will be open to the public. It may sit anywhere in the United States and

Resolution's Provisions Broad.
The resolution which will be referred to the Ways and Means Committee will doubtless be reported back as follows:

"Resolved, That the Committee on Ways and Means is hereby empowered and directed to make a thorough and complete investigation into the cost of living in the United States and any alleged increase thereof and the cost of the necessities of life, including clothing, fuel, furniture, meats, breadstuffs and provisions generally and implements, the cost of production, wholesale and retail prices thereof and the rate of profit to those who sell and distribute the same and the causes of such increased cost and prices, and whether
and prices are affected, are increased otherwise by any laws of the United States and to investigate, recommend and report such legislation as will in its judgment contribute to restore such prices to their normal level; that said committee is further authorized to investigate and report during the same period the cost of living and of the necessities of life as aforesaid in foreign countries and if such cost has increased.

"Said committee and any subcommittee thereof shall have power to sit in Washington or elsewhere in the United States during the sessions of the House or otherwise, to subpoena and examine witnesses under oath,
to administer oaths to witnesses, to employ experts and such other assistants, including counsel, as it shall deem necessary, and to send for records, papers and all other evidence that may be necessary to make the investigation full and complete.

"All the costs and expenses of such investigation, including all necessary printing, shall be paid from the contingent fund of the house of representatives.

"The hearing of the committee shall
be open to the public and the committee is directed to include in its report the evidence taken."

The above named play will be seen at The Opera House on the night of February 3.

"A Prince of His Race" is a play
in which is depicted strong dramatic incidents in the life of a college educated Sioux Indian. Having received all the advantages of a white man's education and social intercourse he falls hopelessly in love with a beautiful white girl. The criticism that this play has received in various parts of the country has been most flattering. In every case it has been pronounced as being equal to Strong-heart. It will be presented here with a strong cast, and an investiture of

Highlanders' Kilts.

New York, Feb. 3.—We have announced the retirement of Willie Keeler many a time but when we were doing it we were just taking a flier, as William is busy with his Brooklyn flits. However, the little big man from Brooklyn had just about finished reading the president's message when a boy who thinks he
asked whether he would be on the

"Is it going to be dark tonight?"

"Well, the answer for that question goes for the first. It's up to Keeler when his days as a player will be over. When the Yankee right fielder feels as if he would like to lie back in the big chair and tell about the old days he will make that announcement himself.

Meet Willie on the street in Brooklyn and he will tell you that he never felt better, and he is "on the level" with it. We all know that Keeler
living, and a little thing like getting out of the game wouldn't bother him in the least. The rents are still pour-
go up in the name of Keeler any day.

Baseball managers in the American League would not waive on Keeler if they were asked to, as they consider him too valuable to the game.
Keeler may not be in every game, but where there are such a number
a baseball father around the lot teaching the young folks a few things about the game. Bill Dahlen would fall off the bench in his anxiety to get Keeler with him over in Brooklyn. There are a few more managers who are in the same boat on that question.

Once again we will say that Keeler is not "all in" and we will not doubt see him packing up his little suit roll by the time training season rolls around and be on his way

Highlanders' Catcher Started Baseball Career as Pitcher.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 30.—There are few instances where a pitcher of major league experience has given up twirling and has made a good enough catcher out of himself to warrant a trial in that position in the major leagues.

But Fred Mitchell, who only a few years ago pitched for Brooklyn and Philadelphia, has accomplished this.
Four years ago Mitchell secured his release from Brooklyn and joined Toronto. Mitchell pitched the first year, but when Joe Kelley took hold of the team he started Mitchell to catching.

It was soon discovered that Mitchell was a catcher of more than ordinary ability and last year he was drafted by the New York American
regular catchers on that team the

His Life.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 2.—Larry Mc-Lean, the big catcher of the Cincinnati Reds, reminisced the other day and told the "story of his life." He
is a Red instead of a member of the Cleveland team.

McLean was playing with Nassau, Conn., in the 'way back days when the Chicago National and Cleveland
American League clubs heard of him.
Jake Morse tipped off the former club as to big foot Larry's ability, while Tommy Dowd made up his mind to land him or Bill Armour.

McLean signed a contract that Morse tendered, but when Armour came along he forgot all about his dealings with Chicago and agreed to play with Cleveland. He was a Nap for a week or so during which time he played several exhibition games and started a series against Bos-

The big back stop says he will
Naps played at Woonsocket, R. I.
Lajoie's home town. The Naps' old Larry drove the ball on a line into the river, while the new Larry hit one almost as far, slamming the ball into a factory just outside the

Armour played Larry at first base,
and he did fairly well. After the first game with Boston the Naps' manager received word that McLean had signed with Chicago and that he must report there at once. Later on McLean and Taylor were traded by Chicago to St. Louis for Mordecai Brown and

Jack O'Neil. From St. Louis McLean
went to Cincinnati.

hind the bat instead of first base, I'd still be in the American League," said McLean. "He'd have fought for me for seventeen years had he seen me catch just one game."

Began Career by Boxing for Purses
of Five Dollars.

Less than five years ago Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee, the fighter who claims a victory over Champion Battling Nelson, fought a preliminary battle for a five-case note. By fighting once or twice a week in similar events and doing odd "beer slinging" jobs he managed to eke out a living until his fighting prowess struck the fancy of Ernest Markwald, a wealthy Englishman, who took him to Milwaukee. At first Wolgast's form didn't impress much. However, he led the simple life—for a fighter—and by keeping cases on go: mitt mixers picked up a lot of pointers and developed himself. Wolgast is now under the management of Tom Jones, Papke's manager.

TAYLOR WILL FURNISH CIGARS.

But Red Sox Players Must Place Ban
on Cigarettes.

John I. Taylor of the Red Sox team said just before leaving for San Francisco, where his family is pass-
new wrinkle on his boys when they get together for the spring training at Hot Springs this spring.

"I don't consider myself an exemplary chap, for I hate to think of talking to the boys, but I'm going to do it, and I'm rehearsing my speech now," said Mr. Taylor, after enumerating the subjects he proposes to talk about.

"First on the list of subjects will be cigarettes. If the players will promise to a man to cut out the paper smokers until the end of the base-
the cigars for the team from April
poker sessions that oftentimes take place on the long trips from Boston
to the Western cities must be cut down. Too much of the midnight oil

idly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress.
Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptom of kidney disorder. If there is a dull pain in the back, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the urine is dark, foul-smelling, irregular and attended with pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the statement of this Ada citizen.

Mrs. M. S. Kyser, 502 W. Main St., Ada, Okla., says: "Last summer I suffered a great deal from a dull, heavy ache through my back
a cold settling on my kidneys, and
pains gradually became more intense and other symptoms of kidney trouble set in. I at length decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and procured a box. After taking a few doses I felt much better and I continued using this remedy until every symptom of my trouble had disappeared. I am glad to state that I have had no return of kidney complaint."

A DARE TO SAFE BLOWERS.

A new burlar-proof safe has been designed in Germany. Its especial defense is against burglars who work with acetylene and oxygen blowpipe.
It is called the "round-about safe,"
and is a polygonal steel structure, which revolves freely on ball bear-
when the outer door is closed a small electromotor is set in motion and the safe starts revolving ceaselessly and noiselessly on its axis within its own chamber. Any tam-
alarm bell to ring.

So long as the safe continues revolving the blowpipe can have no effect upon it, as the flame can not be applied long enough to do any particular spot to make an impression.

"A Prince of His Race" is a powerful, well-written drama. The story deals with the life of a college educated Indian lad, who, by an un-
death of his brother, was compelled by circumstances to quit his tribe in
himself at college and adopts the ways of the white man. The character of the Indian is mixed, the college breeding and the polished manners he has acquired, being only a mask behind which lurks the true character of the Red man—an unforgiving nature. Nevertheless, his is a noble character, and to correctly portray it, a man must have more than ordinary ability. This character is admirable suited to the talents of Mr.
Oscar Graham. He possesses the grace and likeness of the Indian, as he is pictured, has a deep, even, melodious voice, and is of striking personality. "A Prince of His Race" will be given a sumptuous production at the opera house Thursday night, February 3.

THE FRISCO DOING BIG BUSINESS IN ADA.

Business of the Road for the Past Year Breaks All Previous Records.

The Frisco railroad this morning received fifteen car loads of freight for this city. It consisted of merchandise, coal, flour and wheat. And, as occurs every day, the freight house was filled with less-than-car-load stuff.

Big Business Last Year.

The business done last year by the Frisco is much greater than that done during any other year. Although no authoritative statement is made, the revenue for the year of 1909 does not miss $400,000 far. There were about 10,000 car loads of freight received in and forwarded from this city during the year.

D'YARMETTE WILL TRY FOR INJUNCTION

HAS EMPLOYED STONE AND MAXEY AS ATTORNEYS.

Seeks to Restrain the City From Awarding Paving Contract to Shelby Downard.

Making good his promise to the city council Monday night when h's bid on the street paving was rejected E. C. D'Yarmette, the Oklahoma City contractor, whose bid was the lowest entered, has employed Stone and Maxey of this city as his attorneys and will take the matter to court.

Will Ask Injunction.

Notice has been served on the mayor and eight councilmen of the proposed action, and D'Yarmette will apply for an injunction from warding the contract to Shelby Downard. The application for injunction will probably be before Judge West at Coalgate tomorrow (Thursday) morning at nine o'clock.

Suit Not Filed This Afternoon.

At three-thirty this afternoon the suit had not been filed in the district court and Duke Stone of the firm of Stone and Maxey gave out the following statement:

"I have received two decisions recently handed down by the supreme court relative to letting a contract to the lowest bidder. At this time I have not finished reading the decisions, but if they sustain the contentions of Mr. D'Yarmette my firm will make application for a temporary injunction tomorrow."

City Attorney Not Talking.

A representative of the Evening News called on City Attorney Webb this afternoon for a statement but he declined to make one, owing to the fact that the suit had not been filed in the district court. When this is done he stated that he will then be willing to say something on the subject.

Mayor Little's Statement.

Mayor L. J. Little gave out this interview this afternoon: "I have received the injunction notice. As far as the case is concerned I have no fear of the outcome. We intend to get in touch of Harry Levy of Muskogee to make the fight for us."

Levy represented Shelby Downard in the bidding and when D'Yarmette stated to the council at the Monday night meeting that he intended to contest the award, Levy said, in effect, that the Downard company would take the fight off the city's hands. Hence Mayor Little's statement.

THANKS FOR THE CAKE.

Resolution Passed to Prevent Any-One Except Members From Riding on Fire Wagon.

At a call meeting last night of the Ada fire department the following members were present: Chief Parks, Culver, Coffman, Meaders, Middleton and Eddleman.

Fritz Johnston was elected as a regular member and Frank Maddox was re-instated.

Chief Parks appointed a committee consisting of Coffman, Culver and Eddleman to see the city attorney for the purpose of revising the city ordinance, allowing each and every member of the fire department $1.00 per capita for each and every fire attended (not including false alarms.)

It was agreed that Chief Parks have printed blank forms, showing location of fires, dates and members present, so that a more complete record can be obtained.

A resolution was passed that the ordinance be republished, prohibiting any person or persons, other than the regular members of the fire department riding on the fire wagon, unless called upon by the fire department to lend assistance, and the penalty for this offense to be enforced. The penalty provides a $5.00 fine.

FLOOD VICTIMS

Water Is Receding—American Relief
Feet Below Crest.

Paris, Feb. 2.—The height of the water at midnight at Pont Royale was 27 feet 3 inches, a fall of nearly four feet from the highest point, and the flood continues to drop at the rate of about three-quarters of an inch an hour.

Premier Briand has instructed the prefects to make a complete inventory of the flooded areas and to appraise the individual losses, after which Parliament will be asked for new credits in connection with the measures of relief.

Soldiers are still guarding many of the public buildings and strong detachments have been sent to the various outlying districts to check the wholesale pillage which is still going on.

Robbers Killed.

A boat patrol surprised a band of Apaches robbing a villa tonight at Boulogne-Sur-Seine. After an exciting chase, in which a fusillade was exchanged, an infantry Sergeant sank the robbers' boat with a blow of an oar. Two of the Apaches were killed and the others were captured.

One of the most hopeful features of the situation is the action of the government in carrying into effect measures to enable the small proprietors, both in Paris and throughout the flooded districts of France to re-establish themselves by means of loans and to furnish work for the victims. The City Council, following the lead of the National government, is arranging with the co-operation of the savings institutions to furnish money for the rebuilding of stores and houses and the refurnishing of supplies.

The government has decided upon a general scheme of employment whereby those who desire work may find it in repairing the roads and the buildings throughout the devastated territory. The Municipal council has adopted the suggestion of presenting medals to those who have been conspicuous in the rescue work. These medals will bear the appropriate inscription "Fluctuat nec mergitur," which is the motto of Paris. Some difficulty is being experienced in restraining the residents of the flooded districts from returning to their homes immediately on the recession of the water without waiting for the disinfecting of the premises. The Foreign Office is now free of water, but is without gas, electric light or telephone service.

The students residing in the Latin quarter have formed a relief society and have agreed to care for their few American comrades who suffered in any way during the flood.

American Contributions Continue.

In addition to $50,000 received from Massachusetts, new subscriptions to the relief fund from the United States are as follows: French colony of New York $4,000, French colony of San Francisco $10,000, American Red Cross $5,000, W. K. Vanderbilt $20,000, Mts. A. D. Huntington $5,000.

Took All His Money.

It is understood by all concerned that a more uniform system of handling a "Fire Alarm" be adopted, to be as follows:

1. The Alarm shall be given to the Central operator, giving the Ward and nearest street crossing. The party turning in the Alarm shall stay at telephone until they receive the O K from the operator.

2. The operator shall then give the address to the driver at the fire station.

3. The operator shall then turn the Alarm to the general Alarm, The Whistle. The Engineer shall (1.) give fire whistle followed by—
First Ward.....One Blast
Second Ward.....Two Blasts
Third Ward.....Three Blasts
Main Street.....Five Blasts

HARRY PARKS, Chief.

EDITOR'S GUN STOPS HIM

Trouble Started in Mississippi Over Democratic Senatorial Caucus.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 2.—Editor B. T. Hobbs of the Brookhaven Leader Tuesday drew a pistol on a Percy follower and a shooting was narrowly averted.

Hobbs distributed hundreds of copies of his paper here today, arousing the ire of the opposition, especially Mr. Percy and his followers, to the fighting pitch. Hobbs charged that Percy supporters have great quantities of whiskey at their headquarters in the Edwards House and that members of the legislature are being debauched with a view to pulling them away from the Vardaman camp. He charged that one Mr. Cannon of Greenville is Percy's dispenser of liquors and that he (Hobbs) had had a great deal of trouble in getting one of his political friends from Cannon's room.

Shooting Narrowly Averted.

Meeting Hobbs in the lobby of the hotel tonight, Mr. Cannon made for him, but Hobbs stuck a pistol in Cannon's face and ordered him to stand. Cannon stated that he was unarmed, and Hobbs handed his pistol to Senator Hebron, with the remark that they would have it out any old way he pleased. By this time mutual friends and the police rushed in and separated the belligerents. It is feared, however, that the trouble is not over and Hobbs' friends, who are also Vardaman's friends, are guarding him carefully.

As an offset to the Hobbs article assailing the opposition Mr. Percy has a vitriolic article in the Daily News roasting former Gov. Vardaman, and the two have served to intensify feeling on both sides to the senatorial controversy.

An attack of the grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies had failed. Sold by all dealers.

Piloff of Chicken Livers Good for Luncheon or Dinner—Apples and Bacon a Southern Delicacy.

Piloff of chicken livers is a delightful dish for luncheon or an entree for dinner. The livers are boiled until tender and put in an oval dish lined with flaky boiled rice. A layer of rice is then put over the top and the mound turned out on the dish in which it is to be served.

A rich tomato sauce is poured over the whole, and the dish is garnished with shreds of boiled green peppers and tomato jelly cut in diamond shapes. It is served piping hot with buttered toast.

Apples and Bacon.—"It is astonishing how few people in the north know our good southern breakfast dish of bacon and fried apples," said a visitor to Boston from Dixie. "I never see the combination served, and when I suggested it to one excellent housewife she had never heard of it. I taught her how, and she tells me her husband and family clamor for it."

"The way I like the dish best is to have the bacon fried nice and crisp, and then if there is much fat left in the pan pour some off. Fat makes the apples greasy and unpalatable. Get the remaining fat hot, and put in the apples, peeled and sliced like Saratoga potatoes."

Olive Oil on Chicken.—In cooking broilers all the juice is saved, and much of the flavor otherwise lost is retained by completely brushing over the fowl with olive oil before submitting it to the flames. A soft camel's hair brush should be kept for this special purpose where much poultry is served.

Filling.

Scald one cup of milk, add one egg beaten with one-half a cup of sugar and three rounding tablespoons flour. Cook until thick. Let cool and flavor with lemon or vanilla. Cut open the puffs and fill. This makes one dozen, and can be increased or reduced to make the desired amount.

Salt Fish.

Soak salt fish in salt water instead of fresh and the rancid, strong taste usually so difficult to remove will be entirely gone, and the fish will be more palatable than when soaked in fresh water.

Shelling Nuts.

To remove pecan meats whole, pour boiling water over the nuts and let them stand until cold. Then stand the nut on end and crack with a hammer, striking the small end of the nut.

Coroner Guilfoyl has impeded a jury to begin an investigation of the catastrophe and relatives and friends of the identified dead have made preparations for their burial.

Only One Escapes Death.

It was not until the relief party reached entry A-7, on the main slope that they found the first evidence of the destruction wrought. Here probably a dozen bodies were found but the rescuers pushed on in hope of finding signs of life. A little further nearer the mouth of entry A-8 the party in charge of J. B. Manly, local mine inspector, came across Leonardo Virgin shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. As if walking from a deep sleep, Virgin opened his eyes and said:

"Please, may I go home now?" Virgin was hurried to the temporary hospital. Today he had sufficiently recovered to join the ranks of watchers around the mine entrance.

Encouraged by the finding of Virgin, rescuers worked with renewed energy, hoping to find others also alive within the recesses of the mine, but failing in this up till this evening, the missing were given up as lost. Last night local workers had been reinforced by squads of miners from the camps of Segundo, Starkville, Berwick, Engle, Cokeville and Frederick. All night and all day rescue work was pushed with frequent recesses until tonight the advance guard had come within 400 yards of the face of the main slope.

Drakesboro, Ky., Feb. 2—Ten men are known to be dead and seventeen others are missing presumed to be penned up in entries by falls of slate, as a result of a gas explosion in the Browder mine, one and one-half miles from Drakesboro, at noon yesterday.

At 8 o'clock tonight eight of the bodies had been recovered, all of them horribly mutilated, and some of them past identification because of the accumulation of gases in the entry where the explosion occurred.

170 feet beneath the ground and 700 feet back from the mine shaft, it was impossible to reach active rescue work until six hours after the disaster occurred.

The concussion tossed the bodies distances of many feet. What caused the ignition of the gases has not yet been ascertained. The remaining missing men were in entries but a few feet distant from the workings where there was the greatest known loss of life, and the searching parties have been unable to locate these entries. It is believed all the men entombed there are dead.

The pit-mouth presents a pitiful scene tonight, with the shrieking wives and children of the dead and missing miners crowding about, awaiting reports from the rescuers. Four of the dead have been indentified as:

cendiary.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 2—While fire was raging in the shaft and upper works a rescue party entered the escape shaft of Sholl mine, at South Bartonville, a mile from the main shaft, and brought two miners nearly dead from suffocation, to the surface. Only two men were in the mine at the time. The fire is believed to have had an incendiary origin and started in the tunnel at 5:30 p. m. All the upper works and wooden construction of the main shaft was burned.

Primero, Colo., Feb. 2—When darkness fell tonight on Primero, where yesterday the lives of seventy-nine miners were snuffed out by an explosion in the main slope of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company's mines, the bodies of forty victims lay in a temporary morgue installed in the machine shop.

A large force of men was still engaged in restoring ventilation throughout the mine and hundreds of Primero's citizens lingered about the mouth of the shaft waiting for the recovery of the bodies. Officials of the company on the ground not needed to supervise the mine work turned their efforts to the relief

ANNOUNCESMAKES SIGNED STATEMENT OF

ERNOR.

His History.

Tishomingo, Okla., Feb. 1—The Hon. Wm. H. Murray, president of the constitutional convention and speaker of the first house of representatives, has today finally authorized his announcement for the democratic nomination for governor in a signed statement. It is definitely understood that his headquarters will be opened and campaign conducted from Tishomingo with additional headquarters in old Oklahoma Territory, probably either in Lawton or Enid. The full text of his statement is as follows:

To the Citizens of Oklahoma—Herein confiding in you my past history—my stumbling boyhood, my staggering youth, and imperfect manhood—in an effort to rise from orphanage, poverty and ignorance I hereby announce my candidacy for the democratic nomination for governor in the primaries to be held on the 2nd day of next August, subject to the democratic vote in said primary.

"Believing that a public officer or a man seeking public position has no private character, beyond that which he bears to his family, I here state for the benefit of all interested that I have resided all my life in Texas and in the Chickasaw Nation, having been born November 21st, 1869, near Collinsville, Grayson county, Texas, mother died when two years of age and upon remarriage of my father was removed by him to Montague county, Texas, in the vicinity of Montague town until September 18th, 1881, when I ran away from home in company with two brothers, going to Wise county, picking cotton four miles west of Decatur. Removed to Keeter and Garvin in the southern part of that county engaged for a few months in picking cotton and chopping cord wood subsequently attending school, worked upon a farm for E. W. Loper whose sons live at Tishomingo, at $7.50 per month for one crop season, worked on a brick yard in Greasy Bend west of Aurora, ran cattle on the Trinity river for one James Craig Went to Springtown, Parker county, attended College Hill Institute, subsequently taught school at Gosben and Millsap in said county. Removed to Buffalo, Leon county, thence to Cade, Navarro county, where I taught school, also for some months in Limestone county. Lived a few months in Farmersville, Collin county, and at La Grange, Ledbetter and Round Top, Fayette county. Returned to school at College Hill Institute for one year, later was associate editor of a state weekly paper, the Farmers World, a Dallas, established and edited the Daily and Weekly News at Corsicana, admitted to the bar to practice law, and after a short while removed to Fort Worth and formed a partnership with Less L. Hudson, with offices in the Powell building, remaining there a year and half, removed to Tishomingo, where I have since lived.

During this period, for gainful occupation, I had picked cotton, chopped cord wood, worked on brick yards and by the month on the farm, punched cattle, farmed on rented land, attended school, acted as book agent, and as a drummer on the road, edited newspapers, served as newspaper solicitor, newspaper reporter for the Fort Worth Daily Gazette, as school teacher, lawyer and proprietary farmer.

Within Oklahoma now live persons who knew me at these various places, among them Dr. J. E. Garp, Okla-home City Dr. Harris, Konawa, C. W. Gores Henryetta, G. W. Lewis a brick mason and Mr. Crow, of Marlow, Wm. Bobo, Norman, Dr. Standifer, Elk City Henry C. Gilliland and Sam Gilliland and his brothers of Jackson county, Millard Hewitt, the Killough boys and Loftus boys of Washita county, B. W. Taylor, Bertrand, Cimarron county, N. E. Nance, a banker, Guymon, Oklahoma, Jess Hill, Tulsa, Bill Kendall and the other Kendall boys of Roger Mills county, including many others whose names are too numerous to mention.

In this recital I purposely omit any successes or failures I may have made, and give these places of residence and the occupations I have followed that any citizen of Oklahoma may investigate my past conduct as a boy, youth and man. I have never been a grafter or broken the law. My only request is that whatever charges may be made against me should be made in the open, and I call upon the people now to make the opposition fight fair. Do not permit gum shoe falsehoods as has been practiced for the past few months. Make them make their charges in the open and in time for me to answer and the people to investigate. Whatever charges I have to make against any person will be made open and above board and a sufficient length of time before August to give time for reply.

I have no financial interest other than farm lands and farm property. I own no newspaper or stock in any newspaper, periodical or journal, nor do I hold any mortgage on any newspaper plant for money loaned nor do I expect to buy any newspaper either outright or editorial support, nor do I intend to hire any person to work for my nomination.

The daily press have not generally treated me fairly, particularly the metropolitan press. They have given me a character foreign to my convictions, impulses or motives. Not a single member of this latter class in the state has been as fair to me during my public career as the Morning News of Dallas, Texas.

In due time I shall in completed speech discuss the questions which I conceive to be important and which will likely arise in the campaign, giving my position and the reasons therefor. I shall visit every county in the state with a view of giving those reasons to the people.

My record upon all state questions is more fully known than any other candidate's, and certainly as fully known as any other person's. As a member of the constitutional convention though president I voted upon every question except during my absence of one day, due to sickness, and as member of the first legislature, though speaker was present every roll call and voted upon every question coming before that body. This record will be found in the printed journals of those two bodies. The public may not have agreed with me in all my public career—and it would have been strange if they did—but no man can ever have charged me with having shifted or shirked a single responsibility.

In all my public career I have tried to merit and obtain the confidence and approval of the people, but above all the approval of one man whose confidence and conscientious approval, obtained, satisfied me, and that man's name is Bill Murray. I have had but little controversy with the great middle class, particularly that portion of them known as the farmer and skilled labor, but have had some difference on detail with certain self-styled labor leaders and upon principle with representatives of capital, although I have tried to be and am now the friend of all legitimate capital and honest labor, but have never been and will never be the fool or tool of the fools or tools of either.

Do I expect to be fought? Yes, with all of the abuse and slander that can be printed by a corporate press, backed by all of the power that money can furnish, hounded by a corrupt and debased gang of politicians with all of their cunning knavery and insidious villainy. In many respects it will be such a campaign as characterized the race of the immortal Jim Hogg. Just as he won in Texas shall I also win in Oklahoma, by the support generally of the great middle class, which army's right flank will be composed of the boys who vote, who feed the world; who clothe the world who have won all battles of the world, and

Evening News Special
fected by Republicans. Speaker Can-
riding on a Pullman the speaker was
good law or a bad law, he people
house.

the "Uncle Joe" speakership cocoon.
It explains everything.

Mr Payne conferred with Representative Champ Clark, minority leader,
ment authorizing the investigation.

and foodstuffs, are enumerated.

The resolution which will be re-
back as follows:

"Resolved, That the Committee on Ways and Means is hereby empowered—and directed to—make a thor-
ture, meats, breadstuffs and provisions generally and implements, the cost of production, wholesale and re-
and in what manner such cost and prices are affected, are increased and otherwise by any laws of the United

plete.

resentatives.

Highlanders' Kilt.

nounced the retirement of Willie
Brooklyn flots. However, the little
about finished reading the presiden's

tion goes for he first it's up to Keeler when he days as a player will be over. When the Yankee right
nouncement himself.

on of the game wouldn't bother him

League would not waive on Keeler
sider him too valuable to the game.
Keeler may not be in every game,
get Keeler with him over in Brook-
lyn. There are a few more managers
question.

is not a quitter. He will not quit until he is packed up his little suit roll by the time training session rolls around and he on his way

ball Career as Pitcher.

enough catcher on of himself to
the major leagues.

Toronto. Mitchell pitched his first
catching.

It was soon discovered that Michael was a catcher of more than or-

His Life.

the Cleveland team.

American League clubs heard of him.
club as to big foot Larry's ability,
mind to land him or Bill Armour.

for a week or so during which time

Naps played at Woonsocket, R. I.
Lapoe's home town. The Naps' old
ball in a factory just outside the

with Chicago and that he must report there at once. Later on McLean
to St. Louis for Mordecai Brown and

went to Cincinnati.

me as oh just one game."

of Five Dollars.

Less than five years ago Ed Wol-
keeping cases on good mitt mixers worked up a lot of pointers and de-
under the management of Tom Jones, Papke's manager.

But Red Sox Players Must Place Bun

at Hot Springs this spring.

talk about.

to the Western cities must be out-
hurts the eye sight, and last of all, is abstinence from the light and heavy drinks.

"Too much of even the light drinks will make a player loggy and heavy and unfit to play ball.

Add This Fact to Your Store of Knowledge.

its grasp before aware of its progress. Prompt action should be given
lar and a tendency with pain, procure
a good kidney remedy at once.

to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial,
and procured a box. After taking a

A new burglar-proof safe has been
with acetylene and oxygen blowpipe.
and is a polygonal steel structure,
within its own chamber. Any tampering with its motion causes an alarm bell to ring.

particular spo to make an impression.

nature. Nevertheless, he is a noble character, and a correctly portray
grace and nobleness of the Indian, as
the opera house Thursday night,
February 3.

Business of the Road for the Past Year Breaks All Previous Records.

The business done last year by the Frisco is much greater than that done during any other year. Although no authoritative statement is made, the revenue for the year of 1909 does not miss $400,000 far. There were about 10,000 car loads of freight received in and forwarded from this city during the year.

HAS EMPLOYED STONE AND MAXEY AS ATTORNEYS.

Seeks to Restrain the City From Awarding Paying Contract to Shelby Downard.

Making good his promise to the city council Monday night when he bid on the street paving was rejected E. C. D'Yarmette, the Oklahoma City contractor, whose bid was the lowest entered, has employed Stone and Maxey of this city as his attorneys and will take the matter to court.

Will Ask Injunction.
Notice has been served on the mayor and eight councilmen of the proposed action, and D'Yarmette will apply for an injunction from awarding the contract to Shelby Downard. The application for injunction will probably be before Judge West at Coalgate tomorrow (Thursday) morning at nine o'clock.

Suit Not Filed This Afternoon.
At three-thirty this afternoon the suit had not been filed in the district court and Duke Stone of the firm of Stone and Maxey gave out the following statement:

"I have received two decisions recently handed down by the supreme court relative to letting a contract to the lowest bidder. At this time I have not finished reading the decisions, but if they sustain the contentions of Mr. D'Yarmette my firm will make application for a temporary injunction tomorrow."

City Attorney Not Talking.
A representative of the Evening News called on City Attorney Webb this afternoon for a statement but he declined to make one, owing to the fact that the suit had not been filed in the district court. When this is done he stated that he will then be willing to say something on the subject.

Mayor L. J. Little gave out this interview this afternoon: "I have received the injunction notice. As far as the case is concerned I have no fear of the outcome. We intend to get in touch of Harry Levy of Muskogee, to make the fight for us."

Levy represented Shelby Downard in the bidding and when D'Yarmette stated to the council at the Monday night meeting that he intended to contest the award, Levy said, in effect, that the Downard company would take the fight off the city's hands. Hence Mayor Little's statement.

Resolution Passed to Prevent Any One Except Members From Riding on Fire Wagon.

At a call meeting last night of the Ada fire department the following members were present: Chief Parks, Culver, Coffman, Meaders, Middleton and Eddleman.

Chief Parks appointed a committee consisting of Coffman, Culver and Eddleman to see the city attorney for the purpose of revising the city ordinance, allowing each and every member of the fire department $1.00 per capita for each and every fire attended (not including false alarms).

A resolution was passed that the ordinance be republished, prohibiting any person or persons, other than the regular members of the fire department riding on the fire wagon, unless called upon by the fire department to lend assistance, and the penalty for this offense to be enforced. The penalty provides a $5.00 fine.

Paris, Feb. 2.—The height of the water at midnight at Pont Royale was 27 feet 8 inches, a fall of nearly four feet from the highest point, and the flood continues to drop at the rate of about three-quarters of an inch an hour.

Premier Briand has instructed the prefects to make a complete inventory of the flooded areas and to appraise the individual losses, after which Parliament will be asked for new credits in connection with the measures of relief.

Soldiers are still guarding many of the public buildings and strong detachments have been sent to the various outlying districts to check the wholesale pillage which is still going on.

Hobbs Killed.

A boat patrol surprised a band of Apaches robbing a villa tonight at Boulogne-sur-Seine. After an exciting chase, in which a fusillade was exchanged, an infantry Sergeant sank the robbers' boat with a blow of an oar. Two of the Apaches were killed and the others were captured.

One of the most hopeful features of the situation is the action of the government in carrying into effect measures to enable the small proprietors, both in Paris and throughout the flooded districts of France to re-establish themselves by means of loans and to furnish work for the victims. The City Council, following the lead of the National government, is arranging with the co-operation of the savings institutions to furnish money for the rebuilding of stores and houses and the refurnishing of supplies.

The government has decided upon a general scheme of employment whereby those who desire work may find it in repairing the roads and the buildings throughout the devastated territory. The Municipal Council has adopted the suggestion of presenting medals to those who have been conspicuous in the rescue work. These medals will bear the appropriate inscription "Flectat nec mergatur," which is the motto of Paris. Some difficulty is being experienced in restraining the residents of the flooded districts from returning to their homes immediately on the recession of the water without waiting for the disinfecting of the premises. The Foreign Office is now free of water, but is without gas, electric light or telephone service.

The students residing in the Latin quarter have formed a relief society and have agreed to care for their few American comrades who suffered in any way during the flood.

American Contributions Continue.
In addition to $50,000 received from Massachusetts, new subscriptions to the relief fund from the United States are as follows: French colony of New York $4,000, French colony of San Francisco $10,000, American Red Cross $5,000, W. K. Vanderbilt $20,000, Mrs. A. D. Huntington $5,000.

Took All His Money.

It is understood by all concerned that a more uniform system of handling a "Fire Alarm" be adopted, to be as follows:

1. The Alarm shall be given to the Central operator, giving the Ward and nearest street crossing. The party turning in the Alarm shall stay at telephone until they receive the "O. K." from the operator.
2. The operator shall then give the address to the driver at the fire station.
3. The operator shall then turn the Alarm to the general Alarm, The Whistle. The Engineer shall (1.) give fire whistle followed by—

HARRY PARKS, Chief.

Hobbs distributed hundreds of copies of his paper here today, arousing the ire of the opposition, especially Mr. Percy and his followers, to the fighting pitch. Hobbs charged that Percy supporters have great quantities of whiskey at their headquarters in the Edwards House and that members of the legislature are being debauched with a view to pulling them away from the Vardaman camp. He charged that one Mr. Cannon of Greenville is Percy's dispenser of liquors and that he (Hobbs) had had a great deal of trouble in getting one of his political friends from Cannon's room.

Shooting Narrowly Averted.

Meeting Hobbs in the lobby of the hotel tonight, Mr. Cannon made for him, but Hobbs stuck a pistol in Cannon's face and ordered him to stand. Cannon stated that he was unarmed, and Hobbs handed his pistol to Senator Hebron, with the remark that they would have it out any old way he pleased. By this time mutual friends and the police rushed in and separated the belligerents. It is feared, however, that the trouble is not over and Hobbs' friends, who are also Vardaman's friends, are guarding him carefully.

As an offset to the Hobbs article assailing the opposition Mr. Percy has a vitriolic article in the Daily News roasting former Gov. Vardaman, and the two have served to intensify feeling on both sides to the senatorial controversy.

An attack of the grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies had failed. Sold by all dealers.

Pilaff of Chicken Livers Good for

Pilaff of chicken livers is a delightful dish for luncheon or an entree for dinner. The livers are boiled until tender and put in an oval dish lined with flaky boiled rice. A layer of rice is then put over the top and the mound turned out on the dish in which it is to be served.

A rich tomato sauce is poured over the whole, and the dish is garnished with shreds of boiled green peppers and tomato jelly cut in diamond shapes. It is served piping hot with buttered toast.

Apples and Bacon.—It is astonishing how few people in the north know our good southern breakfast dish of bacon and fried apples," said a visitor to Boston from Dixie. "I never see the combination served, and when I suggested it to one excellent housewife she had never heard of it. I taught her how, and she tells me her husband and family clamor for it."

"The way I like the dish best is to have the bacon fried nice and crisp, and then if there is much fat left in the pan pour some off. Fat makes the apples greasy and unpalatable. Get the remaining fat hot, and put in the apples, peeled and sliced like Saratoga potatoes."

Olive Oil on Chicken.—In cooking broilers all the juice is saved, and much of the flavor otherwise lost is retained by completely brushing over the fowl with olive oil before submitting it to the flames. A soft camel's hair brush should be kept for this special purpose where much poultry is served.

Filling.

Scald one cup of milk, add one egg beaten with one-half a cup of sugar and three rounding tablespoons flour. Cook until thick. Let cool and flavor with lemon or vanilla. Cut open the puffs and fill. This makes one dozen, and can be increased or reduced to make the desired amount.

Salt Fish.

Soak salt fish in salt water instead of fresh and the rancid, strong taste usually so difficult to remove will be entirely gone, and the fish will be more palatable than when soaked in fresh water.

Shelling Nuts.

To remove pecan meats whole, pour boiling water over the nuts and let them stand until cold. Then stand the nut on end and crack with a hammer, striking the small end of the nut.

Coroner Guilfoyl has impounded a jury to begin an investigation of the catastrophe and relatives and friends of the identified dead have made preparations for their burial.

Only One Escapes Death.

It was not until the relief party reached entry A-7, on the main slope that they found the first evidence of the destruction wrought. Here probably a dozen bodies were found but the rescuers pushed on in hope of finding signs of life. A little further nearer the mouth of entry A-8 the party in charge of J. B. Manly, local mine inspector, came across Leonardo Virgin shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. As if walking from a deep sleep, Virgin opened his eyes and said:

"Please, may I go home now?"
Virgin was hurried to the temporary hospital. Today he had suddenly recovered to join the ranks of watchers around the mine entrance.

Encouraged by the finding of Virgin, rescuers worked with renewed energy, hoping to find others also alive within the recesses of the mine, but failing in this up till this evening, the missing were given up as lost. Last night local workers had been reinforced by squads of miners from the camps of Segundo, Starkville, Berwig, Eagle, Cokeville and Frederick. All night and all day rescue work was pushed with frequent recesses until tonight the advance guard had come within 400 yards of the face of the main slope.

conscious.

killed in an explosion in the

curred.

waiting reports from the rescuers.
Four of the dead have been iden-

cendiary.

in the triple at 5:30 p. m. All the upper works and wooden construction of the main shaft was burned.

is owned by Sholl Bros in Peoria.

Records Were Apparent.

darkness fell tonight on Primero,
an explosion in the main slope of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company's
the machine shop.

of Primero citizens lingered about

HIS CANDIDACY FOR GOV.
ERNOR.

is as follows:

Herein confiding in you my past his-
mary.

Texas and in the Chickasaw Nation,
having been born November 21st, 1869,
near Collinsville, Grayson county Texas, where I died when two years of age and upon remembrance of my father was removed by him to Montague county, Texas, in the vicinity
home in company with two brothers, going to Wise county, picking cotton four miles west of Decatur.
taught school at Gosben and Millsap in said county. Removed to Buffalo, Leon county, thence to Cade, Navar-
ro county, where I taught school,
also for some months in Limestone
Grange, Ledbetter and Round Top,
Fayette county. Returned to school
at College Hill Institute for one year,
weekly paper, the Farmers World,

agent, and as a drummer on the road,
tary farmer.

Within Oklahoma now live persons
who knew me at these various places, among them Dr. J. H. Garp, Oklahoma City Dr Harris, Konawa, C

Standifer, Elk City Henry C Gill-
ers of Jackson county, Millard Hewitt the Killough boys and Loftus
Taylor, Bertrand, Cimarron county N. E. Nance, a banker, Guymon,
Kendall and the other Kendall boys
numerous to mention.

followed that any citizen of Oklahoma may investigate my past conduct
been a grafter or broken the law.
ust to give time for reply.

than farm lands and farm property.
either outright or editorial support,
to work for my nomination.

Morning News of Dallas, Texas.

member of the constitutional conven-
printed journals of those two bodies.
shirked a single responsibility.

dence and approval of the people,
scientious approval, obtained, satisfied me, and that man's name is
styled labor leaders and upon principle with representatives of capital, although I have tried to be and
or tool of the fools or tools of either.

Do I expect to be fought? Yes,
knavery and insidious villainy. In

Quillan, brother of T R McQuillan
home in Wichita during the week.
Mr McQuillan was a long and con-
remains were interred at Wichita.

fell head foremost into the water,

announced of John Thompson, aged
companion and several children.

tions of trust placed in my hands
during the first term.

not. Very Respectfully,

powerful committee—the Ways and
gation along the broadest lines.
Mr. Payne conferred with Representative Champ Clark, minority leader,
ment authorizing the investigation.
and foodstuffs, are enumerated.

The resolution which will be re-
back as follows:

"Resolved, That the Committee on Ways and Means is hereby empow-
life, including clothing fuel, furniture, meats, breadstuffs and provi-
and prices are affected, are increased otherwise by any laws of the United

the House or otherwise to subpoena
and examine witnesses under oath,
plete.

resentatives.

be open to the public and the committee is directed to include in its re-

Highlanders' Kilt.

nounced the retirement of Willie
slier as William is busy with his Brooklyn flats. However, the little

the old days he will make that announcement himself."

felt better, and he is 'on the level' with it. We all know that Keeler doesn't have to play ball for a

League would not waive on Keeler
if they were asked to, as they consider him too valuable to the game.
Keeler may not be in every game,
but where there are such a number of children it's due to have a sort of
about the game. Bill O'Brien would
get Keeler with him over in Brooklyn. There are a few more managers
question.

Once again we will say that Keel-er's retirement was a mistake. We don't

ball Career as Pitcher.

the major leagues.

Philadelphia, has accomplished this.
catching.

It was soon discovered that Mitchell was a catcher of more than or-

His Life.

Cincinnati, O., Feb 2—Larry Mc-Lean, the big catcher of the Cincin-
the Cleveland team.

the Chicago National and Cleveland
American League clubs heard of him.
club as to big foot Larry's ability,
mind to land him or Bill Armour.

McLean signed a contract the
for a week or so during which time

The big back stop says he will
Naps played at Woonsocket, R. I.
Lapone's home town. The Naps' old

with Chicago and that he must report there at once. Later on McLean
to St. Louis for Mordecai Brown and

went to Cincinnati.

of Five Dollars.

claims a victory over Champion Bat-
jobs he managed to eke on a living until his fighting prowess struck the
fancy of Ernest Markwald, a wealthy
keeping cases on goo mitt mixers picked up a lot of pointers and de-
under the management of Tom Jones, Fapke's manager.

But Red Sox Players Must Place Ban

at Hot Springs this spring.

talk about.

his abstinence from the light and heavy drinks.

Knowledge.

ress. Prompt attention should be given
urine is dark foul-smelling, irregu-
a good kidney remedy at once.

Mrs. M. S. Kysar, 502 W. Main St., Ada, Okla., says "Last sum-
I have had no return of kidney complaint."

A PARE TO SAFE BLOWERS.

A new bullet-proof safe has been
with acetylene and oxygen blowpipe.
and is a polygonal steel structure,
alarm bell to ring.

So long as the safe continues re-
sion.

fortunate incident resulting in the
it, a man must have more than ordi-
grace and nobility of the Indian, as
the opera house Thursday night,
February 3.

At this time I have not finished reading the decisions, but if they sustain the contents of Mr D'Yarmette my firm will make application for a temporary injunction tomorrow."
